

AnMeiden Spring

AnMeiden Spring Sheet Music

Like the previous two works, this is handwritten sheet music.

For now, only the sheet music is provided.

If you want to hear the sheet music as is, please ask a friend who can play the piano.

The right-hand notes include the treble-bass-treble technique.

It's in 3/4 time.

By the way, the atmosphere of the room where the violin canon is being played in the artwork I posted yesterday is really nice. The mannequins and curtains are great.

(Points to confirm)

All creative works, especially in music, art, and novels, are original and should be based on each individual's values.

Yesterday, I unexpectedly got 270 yen worth of postage stamps for registered mail.

By the way, if you only need internet access, you can get a SIM-only contract.

Alternatively, Amazon and other sites sell 180-day SIM cards for tourists from overseas for around 3,000 yen.
